

Reception Spring 2

Can I switch it on?

This term our new topic is called, Can I switch it on?

We will be exploring technology in the home and the classroom. We will be learning all about electrical toys and games and how we communicate using technology.

You can help at home by talking about technology and electricity and explaining how things work around the home.